BRITISH TOUR IN DERBY

Geri Charakchieva reports from We Are Padel Derby

LTA Padel British Tour Grade 1 tournament

“We hosted the first event of the LTA Padel British Tour on 10-12 March which featured several British padel stars.

The men’s final saw a terrific battle – after a tough semi-final win against fellow British player Chris Salisbury and his partner Alfonso Patacho, Louis Harris and Sam Jones lost out in three sets to eventual winners Richard Brooks and his partner, Spain’s Mario Cerezo.

Tia Norton and Aimee Gibson defeated Dutch duo Liza Groenveld and Janine Hemmes in the women’s final.

Derby local Yasmin Clarke and her partner Harry Murphy won the mixed.” Read more about the tournament here.

“We also hosted the iPadel Club League Winter Finals on 18 - 19 March. The biggest iPadel Leagues Finals yet with 30 teams from across the country competing for prize money and the winning titles.

This was also the first time the tournament finalists were awarded LTA ranking points after the iPadel league received its LTA Approved League status. We Are Padel provided a prize pot of £3,000 for winners across the men’s, women’s and mixed doubles.

Roehampton retained their men’s title in very close final with Huddersfield. The Harbour Club Chelsea were dominant in the women’s and the mixed events, defeating valiant efforts from both Middlesbrough and Sundridge Park.

The standard of the padel matches were brilliant, and we are happy to see that interest in the event grows every year! Our growing padel community had the opportunity to witness these competitive matches right in front of their eyes and we are happy to have contributed towards this amazing sport and event.”
